

KERRY WARREN

THEATRE COLLABORATOR
TEACHING ARTIST
ACTOR

ABOUT ME

Kerry Warren is a biracial New York based actor and teaching artist. She strives to create a classroom of joy and deep practice. She is a member of the Arts In Education Roundtable, Actor's Equity Union, and SAG AFTRA.

She received the President Polisi Prize for Artist as Citizen for her educational outreach. She has taught theater in Botswana, Guatemala, and all five boroughs of NYC. She has performed on Broadway, Off Broadway, and regionally.

Watch her on this season of New Amsterdam on NBC as Nurse Varrene.

EDUCATION

The Juilliard School

2009 - 2013 | Bachelor of Fine Arts for Drama

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Teaching Artist Project

2021- Spring Session

CONTACT

kerrywarren13@gmail.com
kerrywarren.com
@kerryawarren

EXPERIENCE

2018- Present

ARTS CONNECTION

- Theater NOW Middle School remote residency 10 weeks
- Dramatic Storytelling Elementary remote residency 26 weeks
- Classical Text 96k in person residency 18 weeks
- GIVE GUIDE contributor and editor
- Stage Manager for Family Events on Zoom
- Asst Teacher for Digital Animation, Hip Hop, and African Dance Remote Residency

2016- 2021

THE 52nd STREET PROJECT

- Director of WIN Playmaking Exchange.
- Stage Combat 2018 & 2019
- Volunteer Actor/ Director/ Writer for play back series
- Smart Partner since 2017 mentor

2018- 2020

TREASURE TRUNK THEATRE

- Story Drama
- Imagination Adventure for Preschool at Bija
- Birthday Parties Coordinator

2013- 2016

HARLEM CHIDRENS'S ZONE

- Drama Specialist K-5th Grade
- Harlem King Assistant Director
- Shakespeare's Birthday Director

REFERENCES

Natalie Hirsh

Artistic Director of The 52nd Street Project
hirsch@52project.org

Rachel Watts

Executive Director of Art's Connection
WattsR@artsconnection.org

SKILLS

Canva
ZOOM
iMOVIE
Submittable
Google Suite
Dropbox